

Sale in Mozambique of fish confiscated from S African vessel (ME/6954/ii: text) The 1,017 kg of fish confiscated from a South African fishing vessel when it was recently illegally fishing in Mozambican waters have already been handed over to Pesco [phonetic] which will be responsible for its sale. Authorities confirmed this morning that the fish was still sufficiently in good condition for consumption and authorized its sale. Pesco informed us that the money obtained from the sale of the fish would be deposited at the bank, in accordance with instructions from the maritime court. . . (Maputo in Portuguese 1030 gmt 17 Feb 82)