

Botha in Mozambique

^{24.10.85}
PRETORIA. — South Africa held high level talks on Tuesday with Mozambique, which last week suspended a joint security commission after Pretoria admitted violating the Nkomati Accord between the two countries.

Foreign Minister Pik Botha said in a statement that he met Mozambican officials at Komatipoort border post, but he declined to reveal the substance of the talks. — Zlana-Reuter.

HERALD 24.10.85