

Pik talks to Mozambique

MAPUTO. — South African Foreign Minister Pik Botha held talks on security matters with Mozambican officials here yesterday, a government spokesman said here.

The spokesman said the meeting, held at the request of the South African side, discussed the causes of the non-fulfilment of the Nkomati Accord, the "non-aggression treaty" between the two countries signed in March 1984. The Mozambican delegation was led by the Minister for Economic Affairs, Cde Jacinto Veloso. Mozambique has accused South Africa of violating the Nkomati pact by continuing to provide support for MNR bandits. — Ziana-Reuter.
