

ANC youth delegation visiting Mozambique (Text) A youth delegation of the ANC of South Africa arrived in Maputo this afternoon to participate in the week of solidarity and friendship with the South African people in their struggle against apartheid. The week, which begins in Maputo tomorrow, is part of the commemorations of the international peace year. The delegation is led by (?Andrew Nide), head of the secretariat for the ANC Youth League. Speaking to the national press, (?Andrew Nide) said that he is honoured by this initiative of the Mozambican youth organisation and that it brings the peoples of Mozambique and South Africa closer together. (Maputo home service in Portugese 1900 gmt 11 Jun 86)