

Samora names OMM leaders

From Marcelino Komba.

Maputo, Sunday.
A NEW general secretariat of the Organisation of Mozambican Women, (OMM) has been set up.

President Samora Machel announced the creation of the new general secretariat yesterday and named Ndugu Salome Moiane as OMM's Secretary-General.

Ndugu Moiane and the nine-member general secretariat will take over the leadership of OMM from a seven-member coordinating committee appointed by Frelimo after the dismissal as a result of inefficiency of the previous secretariat last September.

The last Secretary-General was Ndugu Deolinda Guizumane and the seven-member coordinating committee was made up of Ndugu Mariana Nachi-naupa, Ndugu Monica Chitupila, Ndugu Teresa Amuli, Ndugu Graca Simbine, Ndugu Fernanda Machungo, Ndugu Teresa Romao and Ndugu Salome Moiane.

Ndugu Samora's announcement of the new OMM leadership was made at a meeting of women at Party Headquarters.

Ndugu Samora reminded the women that the development of a socialist society in the country depended essentially on the active participation of women.

● The Ministry of Education and Culture has set up a committee which will co-ordinate efforts to establish working relations between the country's schools and members of the public.

The appointment of the committee is one of the measures being taken to implement President Samora's directive on March 8 that schools should take an active part in the life of society and vice versa.

The committee has already created several brigades which will meet every week with political and administrative structures of schools and wards in an effort to bring about the union between the masses and schools.
